NOW IS THE TIME

The apostle Paul writing to the Ephesians directed them to make use of every opportunity. This is the way he said it: Be very careful, then, how you live - not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

The month of September opens up to us some new opportunities in addition to the regular worship, fellowship and study opportunities we have had during the summer.. These are a few:

- ✓ Rally Day with the resumption of Sunday School on September 13th.
- ✓ Our Annual Church Picnic - opportunities for food, fellowship and fun
- ✓ Enjoying a catered picnic / Listening to great accordian music
- ✓ Games for the children / Free bingo for adults
- ✓ Zion Women's Guild resumes September 8th
- ✓ Faithful Hearts & Hands meet September 12
- ✓ Adult Bible Study groups begins a 12 session study of the Book of Daniel
- ✓ There is an opportunity to organize a Youth Bible Study Group
- ✓ September 20, 2 p.m. Zion's Organ Concert & Hymn Sing. Very Special!

Many are the voices which beckon to us claiming they are more important, some wanting to take us away from the Lord; others, not wrong in themselves, but taking us away from that which can be more beneficial.

Life is made up of many decisions. Be careful in making them. Be wise, not unwise. The days are actively evil with temptation. Ask "What is the Lord's will" as I make my decisions?

Christians are to make the most of opportunities in the present time, not putting off till a better opportunity comes along. Most often it doesn't come.

Now is the accepted now. Now is the day of salvation. Now is the day of opportunity. Seize it

Pastor

GUEST SPEAKER

Lori Wilbert

Continuing with special speakers during her 100th Anniversary Year, Deaconess Lori Wilbert came to Zion to speak on the subject of "Ministry to the Incarcerated."

It was in 1986 that Lori started for the NID - Northern Illinois District, in correctional and nursing home capacities.

He was also the liaison between the district and the State of Illinois regarding issues of homelessness, prison and welfare reform.

In the late 80's and through 1999, Lori served as the chaplain at the Sheridan Correction Center, Kankakee Minimum Security Center in Joliet.

Presently, Lori serves only Statesville Correction Center in Joliet.

Lori reminded us of the words of Jesus in

Matthew 25:36-41

"I was in prison and you came to visit me.'..... When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?" "The King will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for Me.'"

Jr. Confirmation Class

Members of the Junior Confirmation Class met the first two weeks in August to continue their preparation for meaningful membership in the Church, including the reception of the blessed Sacrament of the Altar.

We began with the study of Holy Baptism, what it means and how important it is for our daily life.

While on the subject of Baptism, we answered the question, What is a sacrament? etc.

Major questions and answers from the Catechism on Baptism were committed to memory, including a Bible passage or two per day.

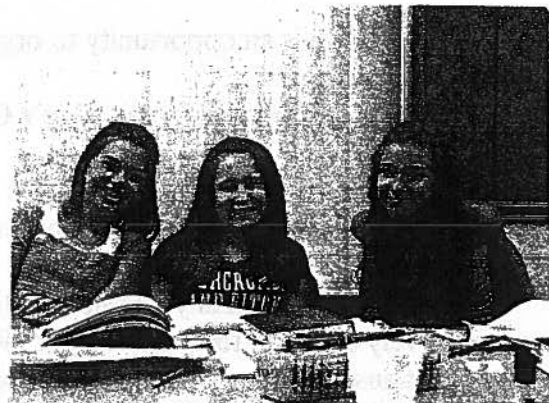

After Baptism, we turned our attention to the study of the Apostles' Creed, committing portions of the explanation to memory as well, plus Bible passages.

So that we are able to work through the Bible, Bible books were memorized.

Each day one of the students opened with a devotion based in Portals of Prayer.

Class members are:

L-R Emilie Stoller, Amanda Peterson, Victoria Velez.

Proverbs 22:6

"Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it."

LWML convention in Portland, OR Part 2

Saturday A.M. began with the "Mission in Motion" Mission Walk/Exercise. I chose to do the exercise program held in one of the convention halls. I had pledges from many members of Zion and several friends which totaled $100.

The Fifth meeting began with the procession of past LWML presidents and prayer. The Young Women's Reps procession with the Heart to Heart Sisters from many nations all over the world was inspiring. There were 69 YWR's and 32 foreign reps. This followed with the singing of "Lutheran Women One and All" led by Dina Vendetti.

Bible Study #2 was led by Dr. Mary Hilgendorf. It was an indepth study of Judges 4 and 5 and Deborah -Prophetess, Wife, Judge, Warrior, Princess. The scene takes us to Mt. Tabor and the setting of the battle between the Israelites and the Canaanites. A very interesting study of the book of the Bible not well known to most Christians.

Convention Offering #3 was taken. $27,842.29 was collected for the "Alaskan Mission for Christ."

Rev. Dr. Gerald Kieschnick, President of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod was the next speaker and greeted all the women present. He reminded us all of our goal and thanked us for the future goals of LWML.

The Sixth meeting, on Saturday afternoon began with the Mission Address. Rev. Dr. Thomas Zehnder, Executive Director of the LCMS World Mission was the speaker. Special missionary guests Michelle Hoepfner and Danielle Putnam were introduced. Michelle is a career missionary in Asia (Cambodia, India and China). Danielle is a missionary in the Dominican Republic.

Jan Struck aka Ruby Begonia of Or-e-gon, was the humorist throughout the convention. She was in disguise and would "pop up" many times during the convention. I had the pleasure of meeting Jan after her presentation, which she was herself.

The last voting of the convention was for "Officers." See attached page for the elected officers. Also attached are the Grants chosen for the 2009-11 biennium.

Next on the agenda was the invitation/presentation for the 2011 LWML Convention to be held in Peoria, IL from June 23 - 26. The ladies of the Central Illinois District did a small skit on Lincoln and "Pennies from Heaven." The 2013 convention will be held in Pittsburgh, PA. In 2015, Des Moines, IA will host. At our Portland convention, it was announced that Salt Lake City, Utah will be the host for 2017.

Recognition was given to the Portland Host Committee and Districts for an outstanding job. Thousands of volunteers were presented in a parade. A standing ovation was given to our hosts.

Entertainment for the Seventh meeting on Saturday evening was "The Pride of Portland Chorus." An amazing group of women who sing in harmony and vary in age. They collected over $300 among themselves to donate to LWML.

On Sunday morning, the Eighth meeting was held with a Worship Service. The Proclaimer was Rev. Carl Gnewuch, LWML Senior Pastoral Counselor. During this service, the newly elected officers were installed. Gifts from the Heart were dedicated. There were 308 health kits, 194 art kits, 697 packages of socks, 308 bears, 421 T-shirts and 1, 776 misc. items collected. The Sunday offering, (amount not reported) will go towards the LWML Endowment Fund.

The final total attendance for the convention was 3,310. The Portland convention was closed by our president Janice Wendorf.

I wish to thank the members of our LWML SELC Western Zone for the honor of being their delegate. I also want to thank the members of Zion for all your support and prayers before and after the convention.

" Look to the Hills, God Reigns." Yes, indeed, He does!

LOOK TO THE HILLS. . . GOD REIGNS

Americans, we have a problem!

About 65 percent of American adults and 30 percent of American children are overweight. Junk food, big portions and sedentary lifestyles are having consequences for our God-given bodies. Obesity can lead to diabetes, heart disease, stroke and even certain cancers. Many of us are digging our graves with our teeth.

Even those of us who bear the name of Christ struggle with what we eat and how often we exercise. We would do well to remember what St. Paul taught about the human body: "The body is meant ... for the Lord, and the Lord for the body" (1 Corinthians 6:13, NRSV). Paul asked the Corinthian Christians: "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God?" (v. 19).

As hard as it may be, we owe it to the Lord to have bodies that are in the best condition possible. After all, they're temples of the Holy Spirit.

Take some steps toward a healthier diet by reducing portion sizes and avoiding unhealthy fats. Then get yourself — and your family — moving in fun physical activities that are good for both the body and the soul!

—Charles Ferrell

Double duty

When the church custodian quit, the pastor asked the organist if she would be able to also clean the church sanctuary.

The organist replied, "Do you mean that now I have to mind my keys and pews?"

+ Christian Symbols +

Grapes

Grapes are most often associated with the sacrament of Holy Communion. They also symbolize the fruitfulness of Christian life. Many Bible stories, including "Exploring Canaan" (Numbers 13), mention grapes.

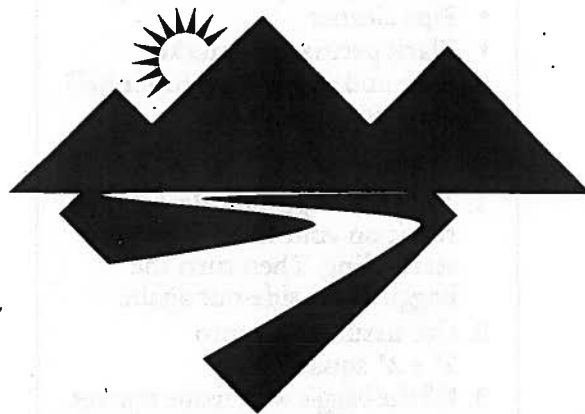

? ? ? Bible Quiz ? ? ?

The Bible mentions mountains numerous times. Three mountains are listed in the first column below. In the second column are the names of three people, each of whom was on a mountain. Draw a line from the mountain to the man associated with it.

- | | |
|--------------------|-----------|
| 1. Mount Sinai | A. Elijah |
| 2. Horeb | B. Jesus |
| 3. Mount of Olives | C. Moses |

The correct answers are found in Luke 22:39; Exodus 19:20; and 1 Kings 19:8.

Answers: 1. C, 2. A, 3. B.

Teaching giving

According to a survey conducted by a company called Christian Research, Christians who were taught the importance of giving gave 26% more to their local church than people who hadn't received such teaching. They also gave nine times more to charity than the average householder did.

Bill Gates, one of the world's wealthiest men, learned to give from his parents. They taught him by their example of being generous to church and community needs. Now that Bill and his wife, Melinda, have traveled the world learning of the hurts, sickness and poverty of fellow humans, they work steadfastly to provide aid and hope. By their examples, other people are learning the importance of giving.

But you don't have to be a billionaire to give generously and cheerfully. What are some ways you can give — and, in doing so, teach others about giving?

GROWING UP FAST!

In September, Monarch butterflies migrate to warmer climates. In God's wonderful design, these butterflies have gone through an amazing transformation. This craft will remind you of the ongoing transformation that God has planned for you, too.

What you need:

- Clear, one-gallon zipper baggie (with no writing)
- Colored tissue paper
- Scissors
- Wooden, one-piece clothespin
- Pipe cleaner
- Black permanent marker
- Glue and wiggly eyes (optional)
- Magnet tape

What you do:

1. Turn the baggie inside out and rub it on your head to create static cling. Then turn the baggie right-side-out again.
2. Cut tissue paper into 2" x 2" squares.
3. Fill the baggie with tissue squares.
4. Press excess air out of the bag and zip it. Lay the baggie on its side (this will form the butterfly's wings) so the zipper is at the top.
5. Pinch the baggie with the clothespin so it divides the baggie into two equal parts to create the butterfly's head and body.
6. Thread the pipe cleaner through the hole atop the clothespin to form the antennae.
7. With a permanent marker, write "Romans 12:2" on the bottom half of the clothespin.
8. Draw on eyes (or glue on wiggly eyes).
9. Attach a strip of magnet tape to the back of the clothespin. Then display the butterfly on your refrigerator.

Be transformed

It's the beginning of a new school year, and you'll be growing and changing every day. Below is an important lesson that God wants you to remember.

Color in the letter boxes that have an asterisk (*).

Then write the letters that are left on the lines below to finish Romans 12:2.
